About This Game

*"A birdie flew across the roof yesterday.
She said she'll fly over again today."*

From a decade ago, by the creator of To the Moon and Finding Paradise: A 30-minute experimental adventure game about a faceless girl stuck inside a house with no door to the outside.

- A short play fitting for a single sitting.
- A lousy original soundtrack consisting of one single tune.
- An abstract experience that you hereby agree not to sue the developer for.
